OUR AREA OF EXPERTISE

Over the years our security personnel have proved their ability in safeguarding assets and personal property against theft, pilferage, intrusions, fire, flooding and accidents, covering everything from gate entrance control and reception to internal patrols, In-house security and response functions.

Our specialist areas of expertise are based in facility management on over two decades of undertaking risk assessments, design, specification and project management of security systems for numerous and notable clients. This has proved invaluable in enabling us to develop a rare insight into the reasons for failure and inadequacies of design and installation standards. This high calibre experience, together with current involvement in contemporary developments, provides the core expertise needed to provide an effective expert security service. Our successful service brings together leading authorities on all aspects of security to offer unequalled expertise and experience in security matters from one source – Brilliant Intelligence Security Force

We ascribe our success to three pillars of good security i.e. selection, Training and supervision. At Brilliant Intelligence Security Force we follow a rigorous selection process, recruiting the pick of applicants that meet our parameters with regard to age, physical fitness and background, Recruits are inducted only after they pass the detailed and stringent background checks on their service records. Once the selection process is completed, the process of intensive training begins. This is mandatory for every recruit, to ensure that our force is fit and ready to carry out its task to perfection. All our recruits are given basic security training including guarding skills, rudiments of First-Aid, Fire Fighting and self-defense. Even after deployment our security force is required to undergo periodic training to enhance existing skills and keep them in peak form. At Brilliant group of companies we believe that supervision is an integral and essential part of maintaining our force. We therefore have a very strong operation team comprising a operation Head, General Manager, Field Manager and Patrolling Officers, who conduct regular checks on the force during assignments. We conduct regular checks on the force during assignments. We also have a round the clock, fully staffed control room to ensure that both our clients and the guards assigned to them can avail assistance, whenever and wherever they need it.
